A close-up photograph of a pair of silver household scissors resting on a piece of white, textured fabric. The fabric has a red thread running along its edge. In the background, there are two white, cylindrical objects, possibly socks or pieces of fabric, and a white rectangular object. The scissors are open, and their blades are pointing towards the top left. The text "HOUSE HOLD SCISSORS" is overlaid in the center of the image in a black, serif font.
